

Dr. Christopher Reynolds

Christopher Reynolds is Director of Music and Organist at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Capitol Square in Richmond, VA, where he oversees an active music ministry in this historic parish. Prior to serving at St. Paul's, he was the Associate Director of Music at Christ Church Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, MI. Christopher studied with world renowned organist, Dr. Marilyn Mason, while earning a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Organ Performance and Church Music from the University of Michigan. Prior studies were at Shenandoah Conservatory in Winchester, VA, where he studied with Dr. Steven Cooksey and Dr. W. Dudley Oakes. Christopher holds the Choirmaster Certificate from the American Guild of Organists (AGO) and is also active with the Association of Anglican Musicians (AAM). Christopher is the former Dean of the Richmond Chapter of the AGO and was recently appointed the fourth director of the Richmond Men's Chorus.

Christopher Reynolds, D.M.A.
Director of Music and Organist