

Michelle Camper – Bio

Michelle Camper currently serves as the choral accompanist at James Wood High School. She has been involved in music education her entire life, with over 30 years of private piano instruction, 23 years of choral directing and K-12 general music classes at two local private schools, adjudicator for VMTA and other festivals, rehearsal accompanist for several of Handley High School's musical productions, accompanist for Loudoun County Public Schools, as well as her local church, The Camp of Faith in Stephens City, where she presently serves as worship leader and accompanist. As a lifelong pianist, she has enjoyed collaborating with many vocalists over the years, as well as instrumentalists. Michelle holds a B.M. in Piano Pedagogy from Shenandoah Conservatory of Shenandoah University.