

Wayne L. Wold

Wayne L. Wold, DMA, AAGO, is Adjunct Associate Professor of Music at Shenandoah University where he teaches organ and directs the summer Church Music Institute. SU awarded him the "Alumnus of Excellence Award" in 2015. He is also Director of Music at First Lutheran Church in Ellicott City, Md.; Professor Emeritus and College Organist at Hood College in Frederick, Md.; and an active performer, composer, and clinician. From 1996-2013 he served as Director of Chapel Music at Camp David, the presidential retreat. He has presented solo concerts across the U.S. and in Europe and has performed on organ and harpsichord with the Maryland Symphony Orchestra, the Frederick Symphony Orchestra, the Bach in Baltimore Orchestra, and in numerous chamber groups. His published compositions number over 400, and he is the author of four books and numerous articles on various aspects of church music.